Celebrating 301 years of settlement
- beginning at Fort Maurepas in 1699!

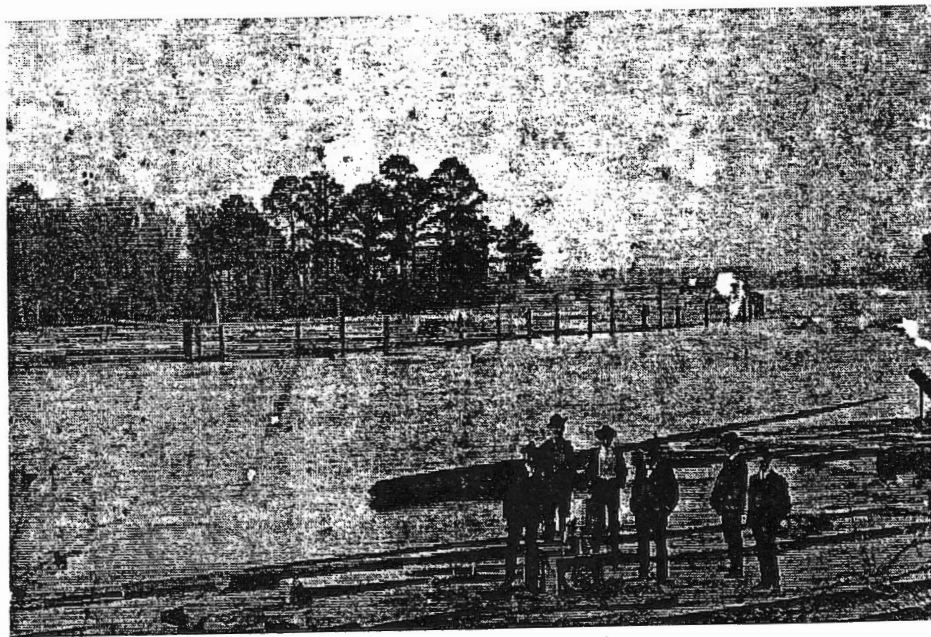

OUR PROUD HERITAGE!

Paying tribute to those creating our history...

From Pierre Le Moyne d'Iberville establishing this small French settlement in 1699... To the naming of the county, Jackson, on December 14, 1812, in honor of General Andrew Jackson of Tennessee, a former congressman, senator and judge, and later the seventh president of the United States.

the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Goudeau on the Lake Front drive, under unusual and pathetic circumstances.

Mrs. Romine and Mrs. J. Soule Smith were out driving early in the morning and when they came down the Lake Front drive Mrs. Romine was seized with an attack of heart disease, from which she had been a periodical sufferer. When they reached the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Goudeau, who were old friends of hers, she became too ill to proceed with the drive and concluded to go into the house to rest for awhile. When she stepped from the vehicle she pitched forward on her face unconscious, and while in that condition was conveyed into the house.

It was believed at first that she would recover from her indisposition in a few hours, but toward mid-afternoon it was seen that she was in a dangerous condition. Three physicians were summoned and they tried in every way to save her life, but she died late in the evening.

Mrs. Romine was 64 years old and had made her home with Mr. Dees for some time. She was an estimable lady, and had many friends who were shocked by the suddenness of her death.

She leaves one son, grown, who resides in Crowley. He endeavored to get here last night in response to a telegram, but as the train did not pass through Crowley, was unable to reach the city.

The remains were conveyed to the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Dees, whence the funeral was held, followed by interment in Orange Grove cemetery (in Lake Charles, La).

[Mrs. Romine was sister of Hon. M. A. Dees and Mrs. Fannie Cudabac of our city. - E]

Mrs. Mae Virginia Minor Russell

OBIT - Apr 5, 1910

Mrs. H. F. Russell died at the Baldwin Sanitarium in El Paso, Texas, on Friday morning of last week. Mrs. Russell had gone to El Paso several months ago on account of declining health. The remains arrived at Ocean Springs, the family home, on April 4th, and interment was made the same afternoon in Evergreen cemetery [Ocean Springs]. She is survived by a husband, a son, Minor Russell; two daughters, Misses Hazel and Ethel; a brother Mr. J. D. Minor, and a sister, Mrs. (Dr.) R. A. Switzer. [The tombstone gives her name as May Virginia Russell. She was the daughter of Judge H. H. Minor, Jr., 1837-1884, and Virginia Doyal Minor, 1844-1908.]

Peter John Solvas

OBIT - Nov 3, 1905?

Mr. Peter John Solvas, a native of Spain, died Saturday, October 28th, at 6:15 o'clock p. m., at his room in the Little St. Charles Hotel on Delmas avenue. The cause of his death was from a sanguineous cyst of the liver.

He came to America at the age of 10 years and shortly after settled at this port. He was married to Miss Leonora Boyd about the year 1878, who died four years ago, and was the father of six children, four sons and two daughters:

T. A. Solvas, Harry Solvas, Oliver Solvas and Vincent Solvas, Mrs. E. N. Davidson and Miss Ethel L. Solvas, all of Mobile, who survive him.

Deceased was 53 years of age at the time of death. The funeral took place Sunday afternoon from the Catholic church, Rev. Father W. Ten Brink officiating. Interment was made in the Pascagoula (Greenwood) cemetery. Mr. Solvas had lived a helpful and honorable life and is mourned by many relatives and friends.

Elk Lodge was ablaze with lights and resounded with cheerfulness when Mrs. Bush H. Field gave a house party. A Christmas-tree illuminated by tiny candles and its branch-filled with sonvenirs was the chief feature of attraction containing for every one in attendance some gift of esteem. The occasion was one of rejoicing and revelry, and the enjoyment afforded was appreciated and complimented.

Tuesday morning the Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian church gave a supper at the Ocean Springs Hotel, which was well patronized and proved to be a social success. Miss May Bailey, of Conehatta, favored the guests with a recitation.

the death in New York last Saturday of Col. A. A. Martinis, of New Orleans was unexpected by his many friends here and along the coast. Much regret is felt and expressed because he was esteemed for his magnanimity and unpretentious character. He was one of the leading workers in business in the South, the cotton mills in New Orleans bear his name and have given employment to thousands of operatives, male and female during the last thirty years. Mr. Martinis yearly spent the winter months at his beautiful villa, sitting on the West beach.

A MISTAKE

Last Friday evening the little village of Swartwout, ten miles east of here, was very much stirred up over the arrival of an Arabian woman with one child who had been placed aboard a train at New York supposedly for Pittsburg, Pa., but through some error of exchange on the part of the emigration agent was given the transportation belonging to another woman, Mrs. Elizabeth Kevumaki and her two children, from Finland on their way to her husband, Isaac Kevumaki. Kevumski, who is a trunk farmer, wrote for his family sometime ago and was on the qui vive of expectancy when, to his consternation, the Arabian woman, who could not speak a word of English, stepped upon the platform instead of his wife and children. The wife and children of Mr. Kevumaki have not arrived but the Arabian woman was safely returned to her destination.

A LITTLE BOY'S LIFE SAVED

I have a few words to say regarding Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It saved my little boy's life and I feel that I cannot praise it enough. I bought a bottle of it from C. E. Sears, of Goodwin, S. D., and when I got home with it the poor baby could hardly breathe. I gave the medicine as directed every ten minutes until he "threw up" and then I thought sure he was going to choke to death. We had to pull the phlegm out of his mouth by great exertions. I am now well again. I am sure that a bottle of cough medicine is a good investment for every home. Today I am a happy man. Love

QUARANTINE CONVENTION.

Surgeon-General Wyman Outlines the Scope of His Address.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Oct. 28.—In a letter to Governor Cox, chairman of the general committee of the Southern Immigration and Quarantine Conference, to be held here Nov. 9 and 10, Surgeon Walter Wyman outlines the scope of his address as follows:

"I take pleasure in acknowledging the receipt of your letter of the 21st with reference to my attitude at the Conference at Chattanooga.

"It will give me great pleasure to be there, as I have previously written you. I write, however, in regard to my subject, 'Yellow Fever, Its Origin and Its Prevention.' Understand that in giving this topic to me, 'Origin and Prevention' are general terms, and do not relate to the recent epidemic in New Orleans. It would be premature and not desirable for me to enter upon such a discussion, and I have no doubt that is your idea also. I understand that the deliberations of the convention are to be of a future, but that it is not the intention to provide for addresses that may involve dispute."

MR. PETER JOHN SOLVAS DEAD.

Mr. Peter John Solvas, a native of Spain, died Saturday, October 28th, at 6:15 o'clock p. m., at his room in the Little St. Charles Hotel on Delmas avenue. The cause of his death was from a sanguineous cyst of the liver. He came to America at the age of 10 years and shortly after settled at this port. He was married to Miss Leonora Boyd about the year 1878, who died four years ago, and was the father of six children, four sons and two daughters, T. A., Harry, Oliver, and Vincent Solvas, Mrs. E. N. Davidson and Miss Ethel L. Solvas, all of Mobile, who survive him. Deceased was 33 years of age at the time of death. The funeral took place Sunday afternoon from the Catholic church, Rev. Father W. Ten Brink officiating. Interment was made in the Pascagoula cemetery. Mr. Solvas had lived a helpful and honorable life and is mourned by many relatives and friends.

From where are you coming, my well dressed friend? I'm coming from CANTY'S. He has Fine Clothes without end.

HALLOWEEN GATHERINGS.

Tuesday night a surprise Halloween gathering was held at the residence of Capt. and Mrs. John Y. Morgan complimentary to Miss Jet Morgan. Apropos games, fortune telling, music and merry making were indulged in. Delicious refreshments were served. Those present were: Misses Emma Pelham, Belle Foster, Alice Rolfs, Elma Lindinger, Juanita Huggins, Jet and Estelle Morgan; Messrs. Walter Stanger, Frank Canty, Guy Ros, Charles Johnston, George Woods, Profs. Dean and Gillespie.

Miss Olie Anderson entertained a few friends at a Halloween party on Tuesday, October 31st, at the home of her parents, Capt. and Mrs. O. P. Anderson, TAX NOTICE!

The municipal taxes of the village of East Side are now due and payable at the office of the mayor.

W. J. FARRAGUT, Mayor.

Nov. 3, 1905. 39-11

That "fleet of pirates" in Eastern waters is the first proof that there's some meaning in the prosecution of the rascals—let the thieves take to the water.

In the State of Iowa are at present fourteen women bank cashiers and eighteen women assistant cashiers. Two-thirds of these officials started as bookkeepers. No Iowa bank directed by a woman has ever failed and no woman placed in a bank position of trust has proved unfaithful. And this in a State which has seen thirty-six bank failures in five years, leading to six suicides and six convictions in the criminal courts.

New York preachers, after a long and prayerful deliberation, have decided that there are no such thing as sculptor who has chiseled feminine faces and heads upon angelic figures to a church building to destroy them and replace them with good orthodox male "phizes." And what the women are saying about those dear preachers strengthens their belief that they were right.

Northern captives on the Sunflower river in this State, has recently imported a large number of Slavonians, who have been put to work getting out slaves for the export and other trade. There are now more than 100 of these Slavs in this particular party.

Washington Avenue is one of the principal attractions of Ocean Springs, its length, width and shade contribute to make a most desirable and pleasant roadway for driving and promenading. Live Oak trees line each side of the avenue.

Mrs. L. De Lessops has taken the Longshore Villa for the season. Mrs. Willis Carter, a niece of Mrs. De Lessops, and her two little sons, Willis, Jr., and De Trava, are spending a delightful vacation with her aunt. Miss Olga Generes, another niece of Mrs. De Lessops, is also a visitor.

After making two trips through Harrison, Hancock and Pearl River counties, Col. H. S. Hyatt reports the corn crop equal to the best stand and quality in any lake State, and a stand of cotton superior to most of the cotton grown on post oak land further north.

Capt. Silas Weeks, long a leading ship agent of New Orleans, who has retired from active business, is spending the remaining years of his life at "Anchorage," the beautiful home of his daughter, Mrs. J. M. Boyd. He is very fond of his fine poultry and garden, and the proof in quality and quantity of both show that he meets with great success.

The recital given last Thursday night under the auspices of the Woman's Home Mission Society of the M. E. Church, for the purpose of raising a fund to purchase pews for the new church, was a success both financially and socially. The program was well rendered, the refreshments first-class, and the receipts amounted to $32.00.
